A LETTER FROM YOUR MINISTRY TEAM

But what about Judas?

As I thought about what to write for this month's Grapevine, I sat thinking about the resurrection appearances that Jesus made to the women and the disciples. Now those of you who know me well, know that I have a penchant for sheep. Probably because I'm easily led astray!! But seriously, sheep figure quite a lot in the bible in fact it's over 500 times. They were the sacrificial offering in the temple. It's referenced that we "err and stray like lost sheep". However, there is one particular reference to sheep in the bible that is very dear to my heart, and that is when Jesus has had breakfast on the beach with his disciples after his resurrection (now it's not especially clear whether Jesus and Peter are still with the other disciples, or whether Jesus has taken him aside. .... I like to think in my picture of this scene that Jesus and Peter are walking along the shore together). Jesus asks him three times "Peter, do you love me" and each time Peter replies that of course he loves Jesus, Jesus tells him on each occasion "Feed my lambs", "take care of my sheep", and finally "feed my sheep". Strange that the question is asked of Peter three times. Does this in some way allude to the time when Peter denied that he was a follower or even knew Jesus, before the crowing of the cockerel. But the wonderful thing to me is that in that short walk along the beach, Jesus has reconciled Peter's denial and has given him the important task of caring for his "sheep", his followers.

But what about Judas. I can't help but think about the desolation of Judas as he walked away to hang himself. I have no doubt that he loved Jesus, he just found it hard when Jesus didn't match up to the kind of "King" that he had in mind. Did he think 'if only'.... If only he hadn't been enticed by thirty pieces of silver given to him by the high priests, If only.... he hadn't given Jesus that kiss of betrayal, .... And having done so, suddenly the enormity of what he had just done completely engulfs him in guilt and anguish and knowing there would be no chance of reconciliation takes his own life. If only.... He hadn't taken the money, planted the kiss. If only he had waited..... Waited with the other disciples on that Sunday, to see how his life would change, If only.... would he have been given the chance of reconciliation with Jesus at that breakfast on the beach. Sometimes "if only" can be two of the most awful words in the dictionary. Somehow, knowing Jesus as a God of love and as my saviour I would like to think that "if only" Judas had been given the chance it might have been different.

WORLINGHAM NEWS

News from Worlingham CEVC Primary School

It has been a short but very busy half term at Worlingham Primary School. Our Ukulele club have been demonstrating our school value of 'courage' when they performed at the Schools Celebration Event at Snape Maltings on Monday 11th March. Our school was delighted to be selected to perform at this special event, along with seven other schools. This was an amazing opportunity for our pupils to perform in such a wonderful setting, on the huge wooden stage at Snape Maltings. The children also learnt a special song which they practised together during the afternoon and then performed alongside the other schools at the end of the event. It was a very successful day out and members of the Snape team commented on the manners, respect and high-performance energy of the children from our school. The children appeared to thoroughly enjoy the opportunity to perform to such a large audience. We were very proud of all of our young performers and special thanks to Mr Eden for developing this group since September.

On Friday 8th March, the whole school celebrated World Book Day by dressing up as their favourite book characters. We were visited by the local award-winning teacher and author, Nigel Lungenmuss-Ward, who shared his book and delivered various workshops to every class across the school. Nigel was amazed by the imagination and writing skills of the children. Many of the pupils were inspired to become authors themselves as a result of the visit. Nigel spent some time at the end of the day signing copies of his book, and he was very grateful to all the children and parents who took the opportunity to buy his book. Thank you to Mrs Wood, our English Leader, for organising this exciting and inspiring day.

Best wishes for everyone at Worlingham CEVC Primary School for a happy Easter break.

Kind regards

Holly Marchand

NORTH COVE & BARNBY NEWS

North Cove and Barnby Horticultural Society and Annual Summer Show

The annual general meeting of the Society will be held on Friday 12th April 7.30pm in Fortrey Heap Hall, North Cove.

All welcome to attend.

Some committee members are looking to step down soon so to ensure the annual show continues, new members are needed to organise and run the show.

The show is open to anyone to enter, there is no membership requirement nor do you have to be resident in North Cove or Barnby. Entry fee is only 30p per entry.

Why don't you think about entering something?

We would love to see more people join us to share their enjoyment of their garden produce (flowers and vegetables), or display their ability in the kitchen or with their hands, or with a camera.

The photograph titles are -

On the beach;

Square;

2-wheeled transport;

Tower;

Wet;

Flying Creature;

Green.

so use your imagination!
